

Bank of Delaware

Date

c. 1975

Primary Maker

Edward Loper Sr.

Medium

Oil on canvas

Description

Painting. Stylistic depiction of downtown Wilmington's Bank of Delaware. The perspective of the painting is from across the street, a crosswalk in the foreground. The scene is illustrated through fractures, the cityscape disjointed by through different painted fragments to make up the whole image.

Dimensions

40 x 32 in. (101.6 x 81.3 cm) frame: 47 x 38 7/8 in. (119.4 x 98.7 cm)